Hong Kong Church Network for the Poor Annual Report

Collaborate to Empower in Christ's Love

Thanks to the Lord's endless grace and guidance, Hong Kong Church Network for the Poor (HKCNP) continued to take care of the needy and promote community transformation in 2017. The "Hong Kong Poverty Situation Report 2016" revealed poverty problem in Hong Kong has not shown signs of amelioration: 1.352 million people are still living below the poverty line, which is 7000 persons more than last year. In a society where one in six people in poverty, HKCNP and our partners must continue to develop our ministries as well as enhance liaison with various sectors in pursuit of our mission on caring for the poor in one spirit.

Thank the Lord for letting more churches and social groups embrace the beliefs of HKCNP. And they have taken part in and formed an extensive poverty alleviation network by contributing their own resources to respond to the needs of society. So far, more than 1000 partner institutions and organizations have developed anti-poverty campaigns and served communities with HKCNP. The HKCNP Poverty Forum held in October provided 150 churches and 25 organizations with opportunities to liaise with one another in order to deliver resources and services to those in need effectively. We believe that if Christians, churches, organizations and enterprises complement each other to the benefit of the improvement of the local poverty problem by sharing their resources and experience. Unity of churches in the Lord can be witnessed and people can be served with the love and mercy of Jesus Christ.

In consideration of poverty as a structural problem in Hong Kong, HKCNP continued to extend the development of "Child Development Fund" and "Youth Upward Mobility Mentorship Program." Last year, we helped youngsters to build social capital and enhance their ability of upward mobility to lift themselves out of "generational poverty" in the long term. We were sad to find many youngsters in society go out on a limb and fail to seek their life goals and meaning of life. I implore everyone to pray for them and hope more members of the society would take up the roles of mentors and journey with the youth, thereby helping them to overcome spiritual impoverishment, identify their way forward as well as recognize the value of life.

With the grace of the Lord, prayers and support from all Christians and our partners in Hong Kong, church leaders and pastors, leaders and fellows of various organizations, partner enterprises, committee members and advisors of HKCNP, especially the three founding organizations of HKCNP - Hong Kong Chinese Christian Churches Union, Hong Kong Christian Council and Hong Kong Church Renewal Movement, HKCNP was able to focus on delivering its mission, establishing a network and serving the public. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the parties above. By serving people as a united spirit in Lord, you are demonstrating the abundant kindness and mercy of the Lord. May the Lord reward your love!

The wealth gap problem in Hong Kong is still serious, HKCNP will continue to promote Asset Based Community Transformation Movement and be a witness of unity with our partners!

1300+  1400+  500,000+
 HKCNP proactively liaise with more than 1300 churches, 1400 Christian organizations and schools, and 500 thousand Christians to establish a citywide poverty alleviation network.

Encourage religious groups to care for grass-root families and invite more members of the community to contribute their time and become mentors. By serving and caring for the youngsters and influencing the lives of others with their own, inter-generational poverty can then be eradicated.

All churches in the world belong to the body of Jesus Christ, therefore should keep the commandment of caring for the neighborhood and loving others as self in one spirit. HKCNP proactively liaise with churches, organizations and Christians to share and cooperate with each other so as to serve the community and demonstrate the abundant kindness of and unity of churches in the Lord.

We advocate and promote different anti-poverty issues and movements among different sectors to encourage responses and care for poverty situation in the society and the needy. A powerful force, which will influence the whole society and cause policy changes, can be formed.

We connect and empower churches, organizations, schools and enterprises in different districts and provide the needy there with support and service in various aspects. And mobilize more people to care for the community and create a healthy culture of social inclusion, fraternity and mutual care.

We connect churches, frontline agencies and enterprises to provide our partners with food, different supplies, services and support in serving the grassroots in districts, and let them take it as a medium and starting point to care for and serve poor families in the long term by providing services, taking care of and visiting them.

Collaboration is needed in this era as people are touched and would like to express their feelings through actions. No church, organization or professional sector can alleviate, combat and prevent poverty alone. We are all blessed children, who are equally precious, of the loving Heavenly Father. We need to share the love and mercy of the Lord with the world so they can truly benefit from the Gospel.

Rev Peter Lam (Senior Pastor of Evangelical Free Church of China - Kong Fok Church)

Vision

Our Lord has heard the cry of the under-privileged people in Hong Kong, it's He who calls His people, sends them into communities of the poor: walk humbly with God, act justly and love mercy; speak according to the truth, act from a caring heart to manifest the witness of our church in trinity.

Through establishing partnership with local churches, frontline Christian organizations and Christians from all walks of life, HKCNP creates a unified platform to perform advocacy and educational activities for the poor, and provide prayer and financial support to frontline organizations, churches and Christian communities, which offer pastoral care to the poor and carry out activities that help the poor to alleviate and overcome poverty.

Mission

Position

With its knowledge-based, caring and trusted services, HKCNP facilitates and support co-operations between churches, Christian organizations, schools, enterprises and government departments that aim to serve the poor. By forming a community network and leveraging one another's experience, expertise and resources, they can reach more disadvantaged groups in need otherwise not accessible to them and discharge their mandates and missions in a more effective way, so as to improve the physical, emotional and spiritual well-being of the poor with the ultimate goal to collaborate to eradicate inter-generational poverty in Hong Kong in the long term.

To fulfill the basic needs of poor people and eliminate the adverse conditions that aggravate poverty, we established a community poverty alleviation network so as to connect various sectors of the society in an attempt to provide services and supplies, and develop a caring culture. Besides, we recruit mentors and raise fund to serve the youngsters in need for further eradication of inter-generational poverty.

On top of that, by promoting skills enhancement courses and advocating education in various sectors, we attempt to empower and mobilize every member and group in communities, so they will be able to make use of their own resources to support the community as well as building a caring, self-reliant and sustainable society.

HKCNP 10.10.10 Anti-Poverty Campaign

In 2012, the United Nations General Assembly passed a resolution to declare 17 October as the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty and invited all States to devote the Day to remember people living in poverty, fight against destitution collaboratively, tackle deficiency through concrete actions, make concerted efforts to have everyone's human rights respected and enhance the abilities of the poor and the disadvantaged to defend themselves from disasters. Since 2012 HKCNP responded to the appeal by launching "HKCNP 10.10.10 Anti-Poverty Campaign" to encourage groups to pay attention to the needs of the poor and voice out for them by experiencing the work on poverty alleviation and taking actions to care for the poor.

About 650 churches, organizations, enterprises and schools have been working together to serve the community and witnessed the love of the Lord in unity.

"Oct 17 Fast-a-Meal"

HKCNP, "Lions Clubs International District 303 - Hong Kong & Macao, China" and "United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization Hong Kong Association" responded to the appeal of International Day for the Eradication of Poverty to hold the "Oct 17 Fast-a-Meal" event on that day. Rev Li Ping Kwong, Chairman of HKCNP, shared messages of poverty alleviation and thereupon commenced the "Cooked rice sharing project". The function helped churches and schools liaise with communities and walk with the grassroots accordingly in the long term.

HKCNP 10.10.10 Shatin Love Feast

We connected schools and churches in early October to serve the grassroots, deliver the love of Jesus Christ, evangelize and build sustainable relationship with them through dinner, performance, booths, etc. Becoming close neighbors with the spirit of helping and loving in the long term, the community can be transformed as an inclusive one.

HKCNP Poverty Forum

Hidden Assets - Creating Sustainable Community and Sharing Hidden Assets

The Poverty Forum encourages participants to explore hidden assets in the community so we may empower and mobilize partners in the community and transform the community together. There were over 240 participants who work collaboratively to start evangelical ministry and create a community of kindness and a helping spirit.

- Invited Dr Philemon Choi Yuen Wan, the Vice Chairman of HKCNP, to share the poverty alleviation message in the bible, and Rev So Tat Wing, Senior Pastor of Mu Min Cumberland Presbyterian Church, to share his work in community transformation in Tung Chung and the service model derived from the pilot scheme for reference and use by other districts.
- Workshops were organized and leaders from various sectors were invited to share experience they gained in poverty alleviation work. An extensive range of impressive content and topics were included in the workshops, e.g. mentor and mentee scheme, education advocacy, community fund, a witness who was touched and therefore started a canteen, etc.

- A ministry fair was held after the Forum and 27 booths were set up by our partner organizations to share their work with the participants as well as to seek opportunities for collaboration. Churches and organizations were connected and resources were shared, which allowed them to give one another support and encouragement while serving the community in a more powerful way.
- Through the Poverty Forum, experience that the participants gained in poverty alleviation work was shared, practical knowledge and resources were exchanged, synergy was achieved, the spirit of unity was given full play and communities were helped in a more effectively way.
- HKCNP connected with a research team of The University of Hong Kong after the Forum. A research project will be started in 2018 to input more quantitative data and case sharing to our poverty alleviation work.

A Christian sister from an English-speaking church on Hong Kong Island was deeply touched after hearing the sharing given by Rev So Tat Wing of Tung Chung during HKCNP Poverty Forum 2017 and she hoped that she could use her gift and network to serve the community. Through HKCNP, she was then introduced to Rev So, from whom she learnt about the needs of Tung Chung District and the development plan of the church. The Christian sister then facilitate and support the development of the church by making use of a learning centre which she was preparing to establish and her expertise in handling fund application. The members and pastors of the church were professionally and administratively supported when liaising with the government and business sector. In this way, resources and talents were shared and people could work together as well as serve communities across districts.

Submission for Policy Address

HKCNP has always been focusing on alleviating poverty at source, preventing the spread of generational poverty, actively promoting and developing programs focusing on children and teenagers from low-income families. Therefore, HKCNP sent in submission for 2017 Policy Address to Mrs. Carrie Lam, the Chief Executive. It is hoped that the government can heed our suggestions and consider our experience when formulating policy programs in the next few years, so the Children Development Fund and Youth Upward Mobility Mentorship Program can gain more support in terms of resources and policy.

- Improve “Child Development Fund” (CDF) continuously: promote the program and mentorship culture, recognize and enhance the capacity building of implementing organizations, adjust the capital input of CDF program modestly, fulfill the needs of the operators and enhance the subsequent complementary measures and long-term effect of CDF.
- Develop “Post Child Development Fund program”: allocate additional resources to implement territory-wide “Post Child Development Fund program”. By doing so, organizations that once implemented CDF could extend the program to continuously support its members after their graduation, and the problem of inter-generational poverty is more likely to be tackled.
- Continue to promote “Career-readiness Mentorship Scheme”: provide human resources and capital to ensure the scheme can be implemented in all schools in Hong Kong. Continue to support the research and evaluation parts of the scheme and therefore enhance upward mobility of the youth.
- Support “Youth Upward Mobility Mentorship Program” (YUM): incorporate “Youth Upward Mobility Mentorship Program” into Commission on Youth’s regular projects in the future and allocate funding for territory-wide implementation, so more enterprises, schools and districts could be connected and cooperate with each other to tackle the problem encountered in upward mobility.

Sharing

It is a great pleasure for me to take part in the mural production of HKCNP “Oct 17 Fast-a-Meal” Arts and Photography Competition as it is very meaningful to promote civic education and arouse public concern on the disadvantage with very limited resources by integrate the entries for the competition in a mural. Therefore, our school is very happy to lend out the hoardings outside our school for the mural. The event is also strongly supported by parents as they were very enthusiastic in helping their children to join the competition. Our students were able to work with other participants to take part in community service and advocate to the public the spirit of community caring through mural creation.

Social Inclusion

Direction of community ministry and community work

We believe the Lord has given everyone their own meaning of life and talent. Therefore, based on the theme of "how can the poor in the community live out their lives and to give full play to their talents", we developed our ministry, emphasized and mobilized what they own. By finding out the talent that the poor owned and the resources available in the community, those "assets" could be used complementarily while churches and institutes acted as the media. In this way, those with specific ability could bring their potential into full play while the others could get the assistance they needed in finding their own abilities. A beneficiary would soon become a helper and found out that they could contribute to the society using their own power.

Continued to support the development of poverty alleviation network in community

Sha Tin District:

- Continued to prayer walk with district members
- Provided assistance in connecting churches to hold concerts, Christmas events, etc.
- Connected churches with schools to implement School-based Child Development Fund Program which allowed churches to contact the community in a more effective way

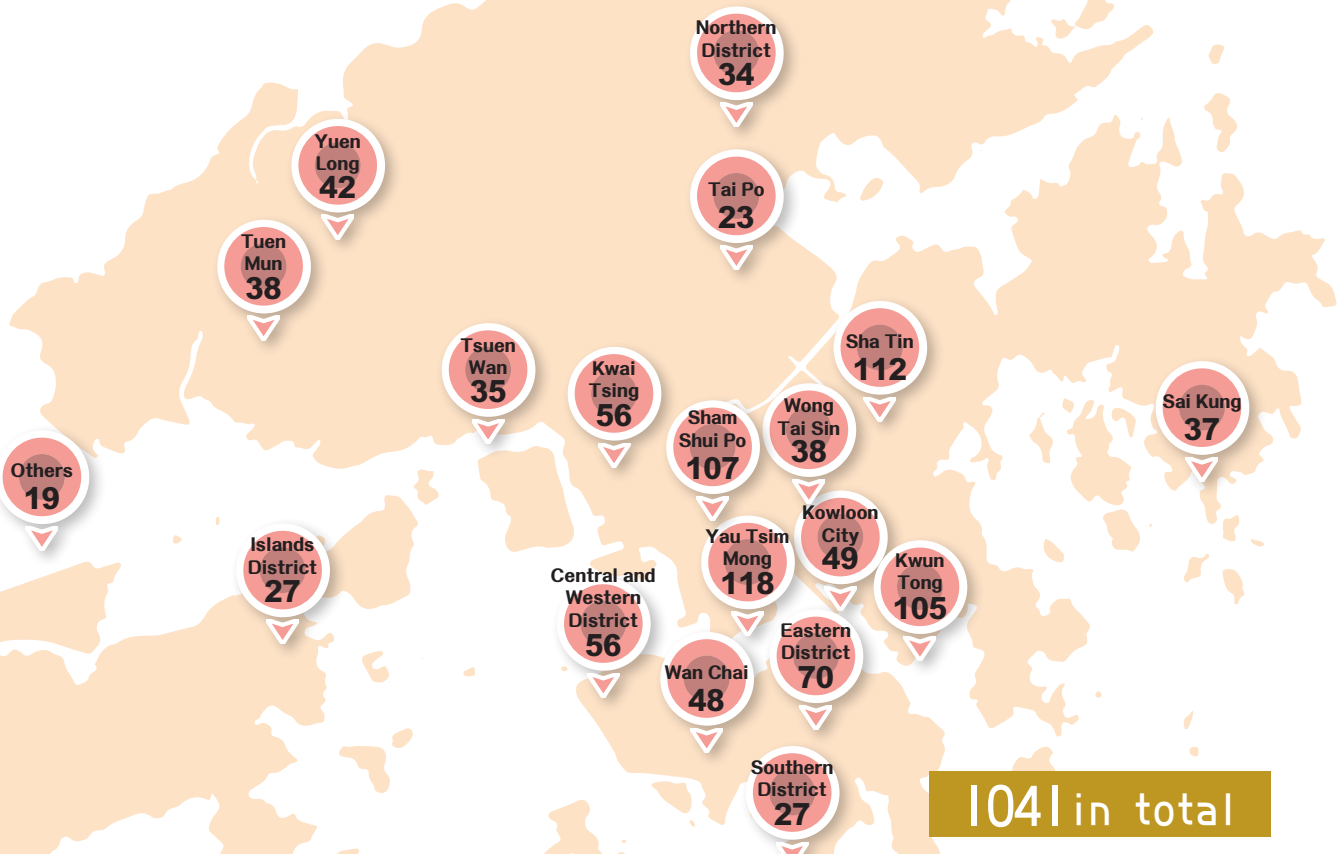

Tsz Wan Shan and Wong Tai Sin area (Tsz Wong area):

- Provided resources needed for Love in Action
- Reviewed current ministries and resources to evaluate and analyze the effectiveness of the ministries so as to explore possible direction for development
- Explore room for applying for government funds for Tsz Wong area
- Composed a research report to help organizations within or outside the district learn about the area and facilitate ministry planning.

Child Development Fund Mentorship Program (CDF)

For grassroots teenagers aged 10-16

In 2007, HKCNP first launched the "Church Intensive Community Mentoring Pilot Program". The Government adopted the model later in 2008 and has cumulatively allocated $900 million to establish and implement the "Children Development Fund", which aimed to offer long-term and sustainable help to the next generation. The policy utilized and integrated the resources gained from families, private institutes, the society and the Government effectively to provide disadvantaged children with support in long-term development, so as to facilitate their long-term personal development and help them lift themselves out of generational poverty.

through assisting mentor recruitment, sponsoring mentee matching fund, coordinating joint functions, etc. In the 6 phases of district-based program and 4 phases of school-based program, HKCNP has sponsored 20 partner units to take part in more than 60 projects, benefitting over 6000 mentees.

The three-year "Faith-based Child Development Fund Study" was completed and report was published. Please refer to the powerpoint at <https://goo.gl/ade3yj>.

During these three years, the mentees have grown up and we could now discuss more mature topics like life direction. Once I called him while his was at home, he picked up the call and I suddenly realized that his voice changed already. The child has grown up and became a teenager.

I was left with a profound impression that the teenager has really grown up with me. I kept contact with his mother to exchange information about the mentee's recent situation. His mother was grateful to me for spending time with his son and she thought that his son changed and behaved well after he took part in CDF program. Our mentorship program came to an end today, but we would carry on our relationship by keeping in touch and being each other's company.

Mentor Mr William Lo (HKCNP Executive Committee member, Chairman of The Hong Kong Association of Christian Accountants)

The student experienced some physical and mental changes after enrolled in secondary school, and had her own thought and would like to get away with the control of her parents.....She preferred to hang around on the streets, joined gangs and even ran away from home as she was always scolded at home. During this period of time, her father was angry and worried for sure, and the mentor was the only person who could find the student. The mentor encouraged the mentee to go back home to a safe place. However, after the mentee went back home, she was too afraid of her father that she locked herself in the bathroom and cried bitterly. She called her mentor for help, which was her way out. It was with grueling efforts that the mentor convinced the father to let both of them have some room to catch some breath and calm down. After the incident, the mentor continued to show her kindness and spent time with the mentee selflessly. She took care of the needs of the mentee and her family as well as consolidated her life in church community. The girl got away from the gang members gradually while the child-parent relationship was improved, and her life got back on the right track.

Youth Upward Mobility Mentorship Program (YUM)

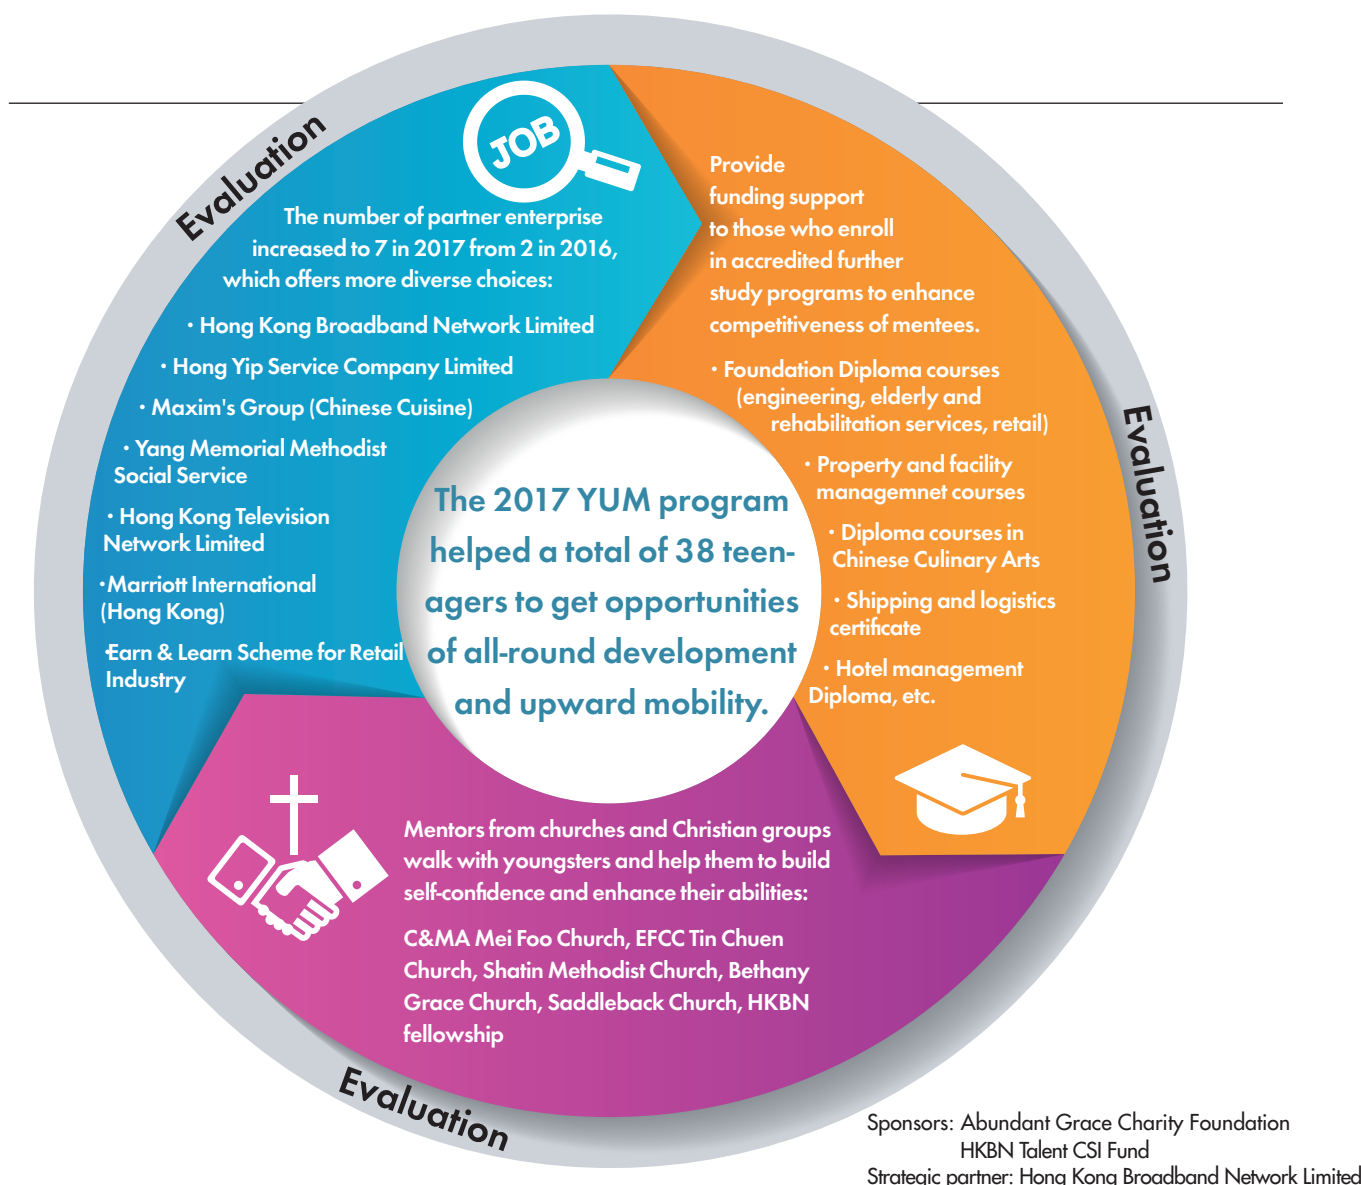

For teenagers who are finding a way out and aged 18-22

Four major objectives of the program:

1. Provide the youth who did not obtain satisfactory results in HKDSE with full-time employments with promotion prospects and chances of upward mobility
 2. Fulfill the needs of various sectors in human resources
 3. Equip the youth to join the workforce through the mentorship program and thus help them develop positive lives.
 4. Facilitate the collaboration between the government, civil institutions, schools and the business sector in promoting socio-economic development mode and refining the existing youth policy.
- 7 partner enterprises took part in 2017 YUM program (2nd year of the Program) and offered more diverse choices, which helped 38 grassroots teenagers aged 18-22 to get the opportunities of study and all-round development.
 - 40 school talks were held in secondary schools, 2000 teachers and students were reached. YUM information booths were set up in more than 40 secondary schools across the territory on the result release day of HKDSE to encourage students in need to join the program.
 - Over 100 quotas for more mentees to join 2018 YUM program and be blessed.

Stories of finding the right direction in the journey of life

Before joining the company, I was a Secondary Six graduate who was so bewildered after the result of the public exam was released. Just like many graduates, I felt distressed and helpless as I did not know what to do in the future. I was so lucky to be admitted to YUM Program at that moment. I was attracted by the features of the program, which allowed me to study, to practice while earning money. The job itself is also very attractive since being a tour guide allows me to visit many different places and broaden my horizon.

.....as the program is coming to an end, I would like to express my gratitude to the company and my colleagues for the nurturing and teaching. After more than one year of study, I have grown up rapidly and gradually integrated with the society.

A sharing from a YUM mentee

My plan for the future was disrupted because of my exam result in English that some of the diploma programs I intended to apply for turned me down. While I was feeling perplexed, I saw a booth of YUM in our school and I was very interested in one of the program that co-organized by EGL Tours, so I applied for the program immediately. Even now, I still think that it was one of the turning point in my life. During the 18-month program, I met a group of close allies who chose the same program as me and my colleagues who were as much my friends as teachers. Having no working experience, I needed more time to learn than the others at the time the program started. Fortunately, my supervisors and colleagues taught me patiently so I could overcome the difficulties gradually and I have now become a staff member who can handle the sales work of branches. In the year I worked in the branch, I have encountered various kinds of customers. Some of them were kind while the others were picky. The experience greatly enhanced my communication skills and this is definitely an important chapter in my life.

Post Child Development Fund Program (Post CDF)

For teenagers who finished CDF and aged 12-18

After the CDF program, HKCNP hopes to extend the life nurturing campaign until the teenagers graduate from secondary schools and get into tertiary institutions or enter the job market to realize their potential. By assisting them in career planning and guiding their growth, the youth can attain better achievements, be inclusive and helpful to each other so as to enhance their upward mobility and truly lift themselves out of "inter-generational poverty."

Contacted food provider to help the churches set up canteens and food bank to serve Christians

Through the "Happy Canteen", I was able to reach out to non-believing grassroots women and their families. It was also a platform for us, who were mostly from grassroots families, to learn how to serve as volunteers. In the canteen, everyone was assigned to a different post. At first, we all said that we did not know how to do it. But when we really got started, we all knew how to do it and the more we served, the better we did.

HKCNP participated in the "Rice Meal Packing Day" organized by "Rise Against Hunger" and packed rice for 50000 meals for the needy. The function was sponsored by a computer network company. On that morning, employees from the company and 21 HKCNP Ambassadors completed the mission of rice packing and the rice packed were taken by 16 partner churches for community services, including short-term food assistance project by "Love Food Bank", free church canteen serving cooked meals, regular community visits and Christmas community services.

Throughout the event, I was most impressed by the enthusiasm of the collaborating institute, which not only provided resources like the venue and assets, but also many zealous colleagues who took part in the event. I was indeed honored to work with them! Every time when I finished packing a pack of rice, I could feel the pleasure and warmth of those who would receive the rice, and this gave me a great sense of happiness. This is the reason why I enjoyed to be a volunteer.

Broaden the horizon of children and encourage them not to be restricted by physical constraints

Rainbow Foundation organized the "5 Loaves & 2 Fish Heartening Initiative Campaign", which provided grassroots families with a chance to visit the Noah's Ark. One of the beneficiary organizations was the social service institute established by Christian & Missionary Alliance Grace Chapel, which also joined the tour. Places of worship and venues for wedding banquets were provided by the park, benefitting over 120 participants! Most of the participants were new arrivals or from low-income families that they were less likely to go on a trip with their children. Our Christian brothers and sisters took up the roles of volunteer group leaders and played with their group mates like warm families. We had a great lunch in a comfortable dining hall today. At last, by singing Gospel songs and sharing messages, the non-believing participants were able to feel how it is like during worship in church. I believe that it was a great experience for them. We hope that we can cooperate again in the future to deliver love and care to the needy!

Collaborate to fulfill material and spiritual needs of the grassroots

Half a year ago, our volunteers visited an old lady who lived in poor environment that she did not have the necessities of daily life nor light in the washroom, and the locks on the main door and the metal gate of her house were all damaged. The church learnt about her situation but it could do nothing about it as it did not have the resources.

Later, through HKCNP, volunteers of the church learnt about "Build & Wish Voluntary Team". Through the used item collection and repair scheme organized by them and "Footprint Voluntary Team", used items available in the community were redistributed the needy like the old lady and improved their living environment. After completing the maintenance work, the volunteers of the church took over to handle the case of the old lady to provide her with spiritual care.

Co-organized Peace Box Campaign to deliver love to the disadvantaged

We were thankful to receive the PEACE BOX provided by HKCNP in Easter this year. Though they were just little boxes of gift, they let the marginalized feel loved and cared. From the bright smiles of contentment they had on their faces, we knew that it was not about how valuable the things inside were but the meaning behind— love and care. These did not just show the care for grassroots families, but also support for churches, which enabled us to continue our community caring service and connect those in need!
