

Central & West district

Poverty Situation

C&W Household characteristics

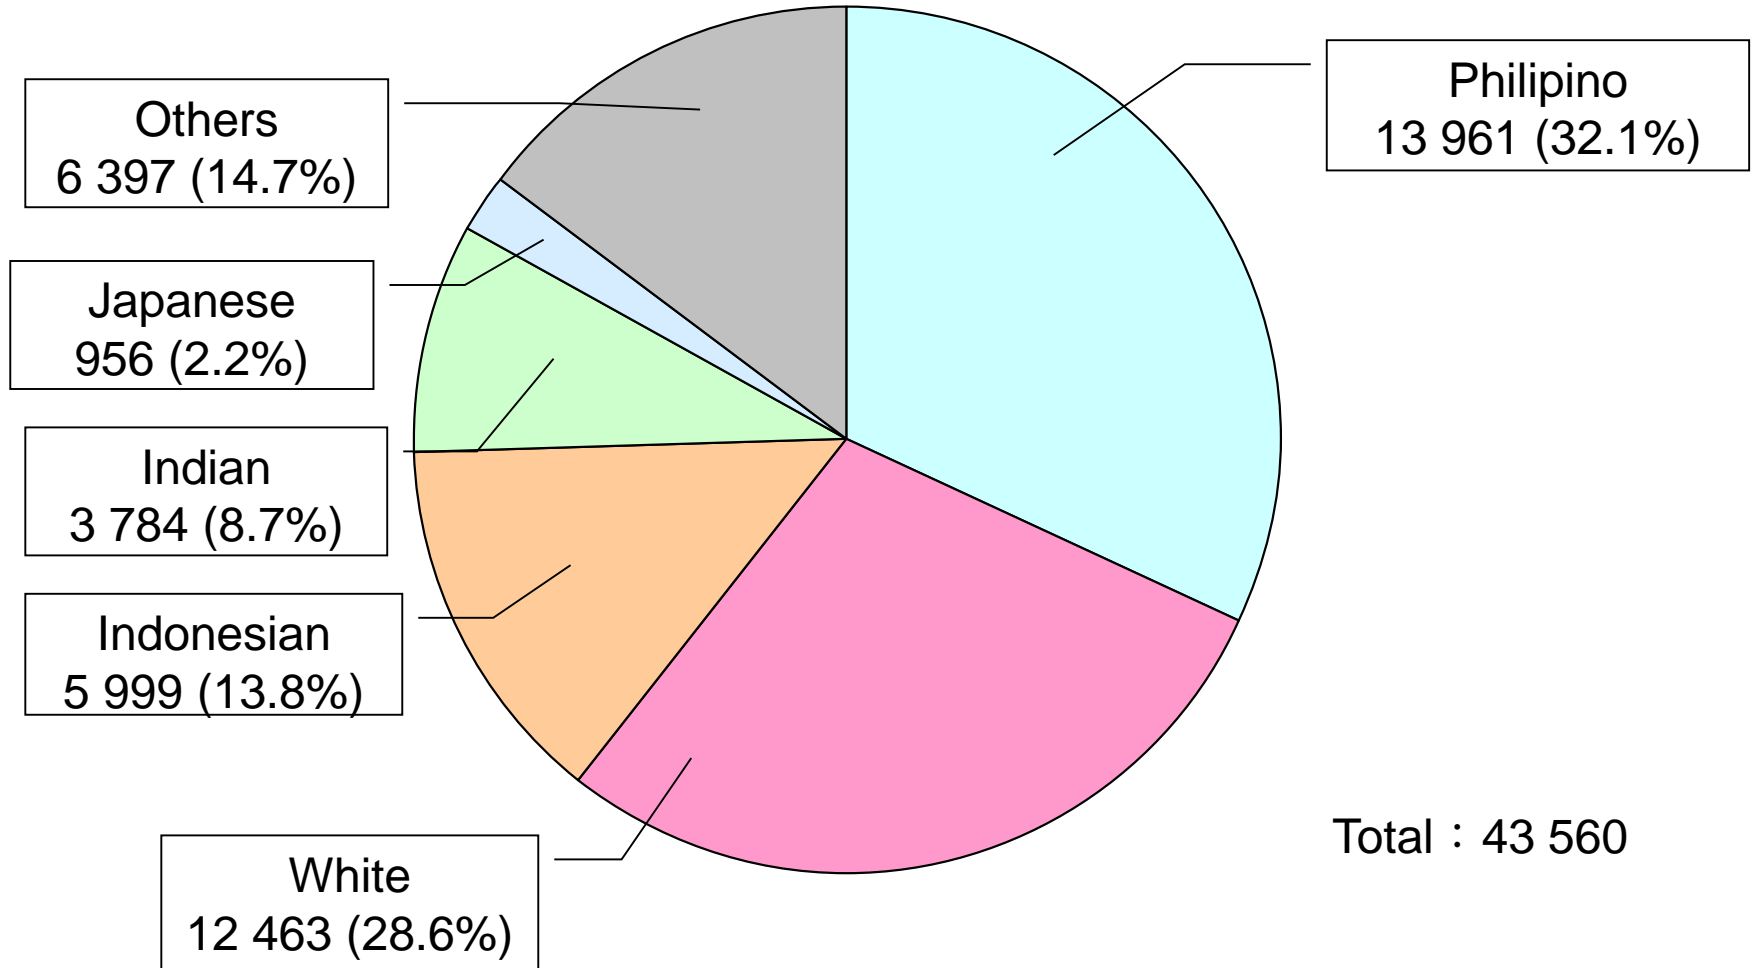

Source: Census & Statistics Department 2011 Census

C&W Public Housing residents

	Household		Residents
	No.	% of HK household	Population	% of HK population
Sai Wan Estate	600	0.7%	2 100	0.8%
Kwun Lung Lau	2 335	2.6%	5 200	2.1%
Total	2 935	3.3%	7 300	2.9%

C&W Ethnic minorities

Source: Census & Statistics Department 2011 Census

Needs of C&W district

- Ethnic minorities
- Elderly in public housing

List of Community Resources

Name of Organization	Programme Details	Target Participants
St. James' Settlement - People's Canteen	Provision of a maximum of 6-week food assistance (including Dried-food or Meal Voucher)	For those who are in urgent needs (After the assessment done by registered social workers, the eligible applicants can get food assistance service.)
St. James' Settlement - Sai On Centre	(1) Food Assistance (2) Collection and redistribution of second-hand electronic & electrical equipments as well as other elderly equipments	Families of Central and Western District
Hong Kong Chiu Chow Merchants Mutual Assistance Society Ltd	Provision of financial and manpower support to assist the elderly fulfilling their wishes	Elders with financial difficulties in Central Western and Islands District (referral from social worker is required.)
Tung Sin Tan Charity Fund	Provision of emergency financial support as a relief for those suffering from accidents/ disasters and their families	Needy persons in Central Western and Islands Districts (Referral from Social Worker is required)

Source: Social Welfare Department

http://www.swd.gov.hk/en/index/site_district/page_cwsi/sub_cwsiothercr/

List of Community Resources

The Active Ageing Project in Central and Western District	(1) To provide nominal charges on medical outpatient consultation to the needy elders; and (2) To regularly organize psychosocial activities providing positive impact on the psychosocial well-being of the elders.	Elders with financial difficulties in Central & Western and Islands District
Shun Tak Fraternal Association	To award the needy children and youth of the Central Western District for their achievement in behavior, conduct, interest and academic work	Needy children and youth aged under 25 in Central & Western and Islands District (Referral from social worker is required).
Hospital Authority Hong Kong West Cluster Wah Fu Community Centre	A team comprising of various professions to provide (1) community-based occupational therapy services and home-model training for patients suffering from chronic illness and their carers; and (2) community service by lining up various groups of volunteer.	Residents of Wah Fu and Wah Kwai Estate
Tung Wah Group of Hospitals	Provision of free general and specialist outpatient services as well as free bone-setting and herbalist services	Those in needs